

I think the laws that are being pushed upon us are a travesty of justice.

We have expectations of fair use and the laws are good enough now, they just need enforced.

Please stop taking my rights away. I like to be able to tape a show to watch at a later date when I am at work. If you pass these new laws, I will not be able to do this.

Tim Taylor